WHAT: During the in-store event, Michigan Humane invites potential pet parents to meet adoptable cats and kittens in their area. Opportunities will be given to spend time with these animals in need of loving homes. Michigan Humane staff and volunteers will help potential adopters learn about caring for a cat and the types of tools, products, and services they may need.

WHEN/WHERE: Adoptable cats and kittens will be available at:

- PetSmart Roseville
 - 20530 East 13 Mile Road Roseville, MI 48066
 - 9 am to 9 pm Monday through Saturday; 10 am to 7 pm Sunday

WHY: Each year, more than 5 million pets enter animal shelters in need of loving homes.

“Pets make our lives better,” said Michigan Humane CEO and President Matt Pepper. “Michigan Humane supports providing access to pet ownership for everyone.”

“National Adoption Week is an ideal opportunity to give a pet what they need most – people to love,” said Heidi Fulcher, Sr. Adoptions Grant Manager at PetSmart Charities. “When you adopt a pet, you also help shelters make more room for others in need. We’re thankful for Michigan Humane’s partnership in preparing pets for the best start in their new homes.”
